directions

1. cut chicken breast into ½" wide strips. place in a container or bowl and toss with ½ cup dressing. cover and marinate at least 2 hours or overnight.
2. preheat oven to 400°.
3. remove chicken from dressing, allowing excess to drip off. roll chicken pieces in egg white mixture, then dredge in panko and place on a baking sheet. drizzle with oil and bake until crispy, browned, and chicken is cooked through, about 15 minutes.
4. to serve, place romaine leaves in bottom of lunchbox and top with chicken pieces, carrot sticks, celery sticks, and cucumber slices. pour remaining ½ cup dressing into a small container and place inside lunchbox. keep chilled.
